WE NOMINATE

Joey Leigh (Jake) McCandless, an eminently successful coach-teacher, who some seven years after graduation from Princeton University has taken on one of the most demanding of all Princeton teaching assignments—successor to the late Matt Davidson as head coach of freshman football in an institution which is inordinately proud of its football traditions and still adheres to every detail of the "Ivy League Code." This 28-year old Pennsylvanian, a slightly-built triple-threat halfback during his undergraduate years, brings to his new assignment not only the understanding insight of his immediate predecessor but also of the late Charles William Caldwell Jr.

It is a matter of record that the Princeton Tiger at the turn of the 1950's rose to football heights—largely on the prowess of a present-day Assistant to the Dean of the Harvard School of Business Administration, Richard William Kazmaier, Jr. Comparatively few recall that McCandless in both 1949 and 1950 understudied Kazmaier and in his senior fall (1950) threw scoring passes in major victories that were described by radio commentators as "coaches' dreams." In one romp-away contest, with Princeton leading by a half-dozen touchdowns, McCandless was even critiqued by Caldwell "for not dropping the ball as he crossed the goal-line."

The son of one of Washington and Lee University's outstanding athletes (football, basketball and baseball), McCandless as a freshman carried off numerals in three branches of Princeton athletics. He subsequently narrowed the sports front and was graduated in June, 1951—with Honors in the Department of Psychology and with ambitions to qualify as a teacher. He completed a year of work in the Princeton Graduate School and in 1952 moved into the field of secondary education at the St. Mark's School, Southboro, Mass.

Three years at St. Mark's, including duty as head coach of basketball and assistant coach of football, led to The Kent School, Kent, Conn., where he introduced the Princeton (or Caldwell) version of single-wing football and produced varsity elevens that lost exactly one game in three years. In addition to his assignments as teacher of English and History, he directed Kent's varsity basketball team and also found time to hold forth as assistant director of athletics in an enterprising school which regularly sends eight-oared crews to the Royal Henley Regatta in England.

Appointed to the University's athletic staff last February as an assistant coach of football and as teacher in the physical training program (mandatory for all freshmen in one form or another), McCandless in July assumed direction of all first-year football—with the assistance of a 1957 All-Ivy League tackle, Robert F. Casciola. One of McCandless' New England coaching rivals put it in these words: "You couldn't have done better for Princeton, even if we weren't concerned with the well-being of Kent as a Connecticut schoolboy football power."

For believing deeply in the significance of intercollegiate athletics in the changing present; for insisting that the responsibilities of teacher and coach are one and the same; for looking to the future—and never to the past; he is TOWN TOPICS' nominee for

POLITICAL BOX SCORE

Though Game's Not Over. One quick year ago, as Raymond F. Male and his Democratic running-mates prepared for the '57 elections and offered "A Program for Princeton" to Borough voters, the town's storied past and hurried present were noted—and promises were made. Today, Mayor Male is not personally involved in the '58 elections, though it seems appropriate that a review of those promises should be presented, if only to put Princetonians in a suitably political frame of mind.

"This may be a rarity," the mayor commented Tuesday, when confronted with such a review request, "but I'm one of those public officials who purposely has not overlooked what we promised and am not embarrassed to do a box score now. In fact, I think we're several leagues ahead of where I felt we'd be at this time, so I welcome the opportunity."

Such a statement lent credence to Mr. Male's conception of "open government," his foremost campaign pledge and one he has stressed often since taking office January 1. As a matter of fact, in his eagerness to "keep the people well informed," Jugtown's No. 1 citizen has never missed his weekly report to the press, has conducted a general-preparation sessions eight days prior to Council meetings to lure more residents to the monthly meetings, has held "Tell It To The Mayor!" hours every week and has yet to refuse a speaking engagement or a welcome-to-Princeton event.

"Through generous doses of 'open government,' I believe we've got the people to a point where they will insist on it from here on out," Mayor Male said. "I must admit I knew there would be plenty to write about in the weekly reports, but I wondered about readership. Now I'm convinced that people are vitally interested and that the reports are well read. And I'm delighted with the interest in my informal weekly hours which have brought more than 700 persons to Borough Hall already."

Consolidation Not Forgotten. Republican critics notwithstanding, the Borough boss insists he and his colleagues have worked hard to "build a bridge of information and cooperation between our Borough and the Board of Education and the Township governing body." Specifically, he cited lengthy discussions on shared budgets for cooperative services, the recently organized Joint Recreation Committee, meetings to cope with Teen Canteen problems and studies to determine the playground future at Witherspoon School.

Asked if continued cooperation might not lead one day to another vote on consolidation, Mr. Male confided, "I'm impressed by the number of people who have asked about consolidation and when it might come up again. Many who voted against it the first time—particularly Township residents—would like to switch their votes."

The mayor said Council has effected numerous changes this year "to maintain efficient and economical municipal services," another autumn-of-'57 promise. An announced plan to hire an "outside expert" to conduct a searching study of the Borough's police department and the small but significant matter of having parking meter collections made while the meters are being checked, thereby freeing two patrolmen for duty elsewhere, were two of the achievements he listed.

On the all-important subject of parking, Mayor Male answered GOP claims of "nothing new" by pointing out that the deal for the Public Service lot on Witherspoon Street "was never closed" until his administration took office and by adding that, if the property had been included in Urban Renewal plans in the first place, it might have been obtained a lot cheaper." He also emphasized continuing efforts to obtain east-end parking, now focused on a key right-of-way off Olden Street and possible space on the Potts property off Nassau Street.

The mayor admitted traffic progress has not been astounding, as current traffic jams attest, but he said planners from Princeton and surrounding communities will meet in several weeks "to put some of the pieces together" (i.e., arteries off Washington Road south of the Township line) and he hinted at other near-future developments (including, as nearly everyone hopes, the east-of-town truck by-pass.) He underscored the fact that approval of Urban Renewal has provided the "missing link" in the vital Avalon Place-to-Wiggins Street chain: "We breathed life into it after everyone else gave up."

Business Growth Healthy. Obviously happy with Princeton's business and commercial strides during 1958, Mr. Male said "there has been so much new interest—Continued on Page 2 and vigor that downtown merchants no longer consider the Shopping Center the great blow they once did? In addition to Urban Renewal progress and constant attempts to develop "interior block" parking for harassed downtown merchants, he singled out the strong ties that have been realized between Council and such important groups as the Princeton Business Association and the new management of Princeton Municipal Improvement Inc.

Openly critical of last year's real estate appraisals, the mayor agreed that he still thinks the appraisers "redistributed the tax burden by increasing the value of land too much and lowering the value of some structures too much. Land has been priced beyond the give-and-take of willing buyers and willing sellers." He said Council has re-hired the Clemenshaw firm in hopes that inequities in assessment can be corrected before the Borough begins assessing on a 100 per cent basis. He extended the same hope to the municipality's tax assessor — "over whom we have no power."

On zoning, the 37-year-old mayor exclaimed, "We're finally on our way with the promised review of the Borough zoning ordinance and the housing code." For one thing, he admitted that "the ordinance, as originally drawn, makes it almost impossible to take care of multiple housing" (and thus the housing of teachers who teach locally, to name one group of primary concern). Mayor Male said the zoning ordinance should be "loosened" to cover this situation, without permitting "high rise, high density" developments.

After considering the final Democratic pledge of 1957—adequate water for Princeton—and citing Council's offer to have the Borough engineering department cooperate fully with the Stony Brook-Millstone Watersheds Association, Mr. Male remarked that no one item strikes him as being "most pressing" right now. "I think we should work at all fronts at all times, like a cook working in a kitchen," he observed. "We should move forward as opportunities develop, and the public can be convinced of their value."

TOPICS Of the Town

INEQUALITY QUESTIONED

Township Weighs Sunday Drinks. The Township Committee, as rumored authoritatively and reported correctly by TOWN TOPICS a week ago, will decide at a special September meeting whether to submit to the voters at the general election in November a question authorizing Sunday sales of alcoholic beverages in the Township. The meeting will be held at 8:30 p.m. next Tuesday rather than this Saturday, as noted incorrectly in last week's paper.

In announcing the special session, a municipality spokesman pointed out that "it has come to the attention of the Township Committee that Sunday sales of alcoholic beverages are permitted in the Borough of Princeton in the public dining rooms of hotels and restaurants with meals during certain hours. Such Sunday sales are not permitted in the Township and it has been urged that this inequality of treatment is detrimental to Township business establishments and inconvenient to Township residents."

Mayor Hurford and his Committee colleagues said this week they will consider the matter "under substantially the same limitations as are now in effect in the Borough." They also commented that, if a referendum is put on the November ballot, it will be an "advisory" referendum and the results will not be binding—though "it is likely the Township Committee would be guided by a decisive expression of opinion by the voters."

While next Tuesday's meeting will be conducted primarily to decide the referendum proposition, it will be a public session open to any other items of Township business, according to Joseph R. Nini, the municipality's clerk. Mr. Nini said he had no other subjects to add to the agenda as of Tuesday afternoon.

PLANNING ENDS HOPE

That's Big Township Problem. The attractiveness of Princeton Township itself and its location in the center of the New York-New Jersey-Philadelphia metropolitan region are factors that can "go either way" against the proper development of the Township. Proper planning will mean solving

Help Wanted

Anybody with a day or a half-day to spare will be welcome these days in the offices of the United Community Fund.

The Fund needs 20 to 25 people to prepare lists and cards which will be used by solicitors when the campaign begins on October 16. These volunteer spare workers are asked to give a day or half day each week for the next three or four weeks.

Later, when the campaign is ready to roll, a call will be sent out for about 1500 volunteer solicitors. Volunteers may offer their services by calling the United Fund office, WA 4-5882.

ing several basic problems. Among them: If population increases as past trends indicate, how will the town support the additional facilities, such as schools, that will be required?

So observed Denton Layman, representative of Isadore Candeb & Associates, planning consultants, as he presented a report to the Township Planning Board that will constitute the basis of an overall plan—a "master plan"—for the municipality. "Our major job," Mr. Layman informed the Board, "will be to help determine how Princeton Township can best utilize its land resources to maintain the high quality of its existing neighborhoods."

Based on surveys and studies made by the Newark firm, retained by the Board to assist in the preparation of a "master plan," the initial report is an analysis of land use and population trends in the Township, both present and future. Word of its completion and submission to the Board was announced this week by Ralph S. Mason, chairman, who first instigated the plan's idea when he was mayor of the municipality. He said subsequent elements of the plan—to follow in ensuing reports—will include studies of the Township's economic base, traffic problems and community facilities.

As for the first installment of the "master plan," Mr. Mason revealed that the report shows the Township to be an unusual suburban community "in the enviable position of being able to determine its future character." According to surveys, only 35 per cent of the total land in the municipality is presently developed. Approximately 14 per cent has been planned for future residential use, and 50 per cent remains entirely open and undeveloped.

Zoned for Living. Like most similar suburban communities, according to the report, Princeton Township is somewhat almost entirely for residential use. It differs from other communities of its type in that a large proportion of land, nearly 15 per cent, is devoted to educational uses (due primarily to the location within its boundaries of the Institute for Advanced Study and much of Princeton University).

Another unusual feature noted in the report is the very low density of residential development. Nearly 90 per cent of the homes in the Township are single-family houses, and average density is one and a half dwellings per acre. In the more sparsely settled areas, homes occupy lots often exceeding two full acres.

According to the report, the Township cannot expect to reach its maximum growth before 1975. On the assumption that present zoning and subdivision ordinances remain in effect, and that all available land is developed, the municipality could absorb an additional 11,600 persons. This would bring the Township's total population to 21,000 by 1975.

However, owing to various social and economic factors, it is unlikely that all available land actually will be developed, and a somewhat lower figure—between 17,000 and 21,000—is more probable, the report states.

COOK TO AID FUND DRIVE

As Special Gifts Chairman, Fred M. Blalcher, campaign chairman of the United Fund drive, has announced the appointment of Thomas F. Cook as chairman of the special gifts division.

"We expect this division to solicit about 500 of our leading citizens who will be asked to set the pace in increased giving," Mr. Blalcher said. The United Fund goal is $100,000 and the special gifts goal is $100,000.

Mr. Cook has announced that his assistants will be Hyman L. Battle, Jr., Mrs. Taylor Woodward, Mrs. G. A. Cluett, Mrs. Coleman Donaldson, Moore Gates, Crawford Madeira, Hugh Wise, Albridge C. Smith, III and Ralph Mason. An additional member will be named to the committee in the near future. Special Gifts solicitation will begin next Thursday with a meeting of the committee at 8 p.m. in Township Hall.

Clarence Cornell. The plain-clothesman cornered the culprits just outside one of the store doors — with the goods tucked carefully under their sport shirts and trousers—then summoned Township police officers.

Sgt. Richard Steiner, assisted by Patrolman Orlando Carnevale, arrested the shoplifters, Jose L. Pardo, 63, of Newark, and Daniel P. Fernandez, 60, of Philadelphia. The officers took the suspected "shoppers" to Township jail, and also took along as evidence the four suits, which varied in size and were hardly tailor-made, for the pair that attempted to abscond with them.

Brought before Township Magistrate Louis R. Gerber for arraignment Monday evening, the defendants were charged with larceny and bound over to the Mercer County Grand Jury, Tuesday morning, they were escorted to Mercer County jail, where they will remain without bail until their next hearing.

COUNTRY DAY ENROLLS 188

School at Record High. With an enrollment of 188 boys, Princeton Country Day School began its 25th year Monday under the guidance of Peter F. Rothermel, Jr.

Rothermel replaced Henry B. Ross as the school's headmaster. Two additions have been made to the PCD faculty. Dr. Floyd Hlawood, who retired last June as head of the Latin Department at the Lawrenceville School, will fill a one-year appointment. A member of the Lawrenceville faculty for 26 years, he will teach Latin in the top three grades at Country Day.

Langdon Lea, who has taught at St. Paul's School in Concord, N.H., since his graduation from Princeton in 1932, will teach ancient history and social studies. He will also assist in coaching football and other athletic teams. Mrs. Helen Griggs has been placed on a full-time basis as a PCD teacher. She joined the faculty as a part-time teacher several years ago.

BOROUGH COURT

Sander Pays $30 Fine. H. K. Sander was fined $30 in Borough Court this week for failing to yield the right-of-way to a cyclist. He was one of two area defendants found guilty by Magistrate Theodore T. Tams Jr.

Mr. Sander was involved in an accident at the corner of Hamilton Avenue and Harriet Drive in which 15-year old Fred Rhodes of 14 Horner Lane suffered lacerations of the scalp and a bruised right arm and shoulder. Mr. Sander, who lives at 73 Harriet Drive, pleaded not guilty.

Also in Borough Court, Magistrate Tams fined Mrs. A. M. Gray, 21, who recently moved to Princeton from Chapel Hill, N. C., $15 for driving with improper registration. She was found not guilty on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way.

Is September on the way to setting an all-time low for rainfall, in the wake of near-record highs in previous months this year? Total precipitation for the first 17 days was less than a tenth of an inch—a situation that the approaching equinox may well remedy.

Showers Thursday are a possibility, the Men indicated, and there might be more of a brief respite over the weekend. Temperatures are expected to range three to five degrees above the normal of 68 for mid-September.

Wide fluctuation continues on the thermometer. Last week brought a dip early Friday and Saturday to 42 in outlying areas, while summer heat returned this week to force the mercury up to 84.

In Trenton, the Department of Motor Vehicles announced revocation of the license for three months of Harvey Lajudis, 19, Princeton Road, Plainshoro. He has been convicted of careless driving and four times for speeding.

In Princeton Township, Magistrate Louis R. Gerber revoked the right of Michael Cartes, to obtain a driver's license "for at least six months." Cartes, a 21-year old resident of 10 Spring Street, was convicted of driving with an expired learner's permit.

Her Fatsy is Veal Stew. Mrs. Robert W. Bussard of 314 Western Way has taken second-day honors in Hamberger's "Fabulous Cook" contest with her "Requet de Veal a la Bourgeoise." She serves the stew in a hollowed-out loaf of French bread.

Mrs. Bussard, who holds a classical archeology degree, competed against five others Wednesday for five GE appliances and many other prizes totaling $2700. Her husband is a graduate student in physics at Princeton University and they have a 6-year-old daughter, Elise Marie.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE? That's the question Samuel G. Davison, chief electrician and assistant custodian, seems to be asking himself as he strikes a symbolic solitary pose on McCarter Theatre's vacant stage. All seats in the big, University-owned auditorium have been re-covered and all wiring has been repaired, but air conditioning, a new stage floor and other renovations are scheduled before pre-Broadway shows use Princeton as a testing ground again—probably a year from now. McCarter will be an unusually silent hall during the season ahead, despite the perennial Triangle Show, the University concert series and two Princeton Symphony performances. ## News Of The THEATRES

CALL FOR COSTUMES

Community Players Need Them. Preparing for a busy 1958-59 theatrical season, which will begin with "Visit to a Small Planet" (tryouts at 8 p.m. this Thursday!), heads of the Princeton Community Players' costume department took a long, sad look at their storage closets this week, then cried for help. Costume donations are badly needed by the Players, and it is the fond hope of Mrs. Margaretta Childs, department chairman, and Mrs. Jean Dunn, her chief assistant, that Princetonians will solve the needs when they attend to their fall house-cleaning.

"Time, a water leak at the Playmill this summer and general wear and tear have taken their toll of costumes that have been donated through the years," Mrs. Childs explained. "Old age in the material is the saddest—the gown is beautiful, you touch it and the material just disintegrates. Last winter, we nursed two such gowns through two plays. They had to be bolstered with stitches and tape before each performance, but they performed like veterans before being consigned to the junk pile."

Costumes of any type will be gladly accepted, according to the department chairman, but those

Players Plan Workshops

A series of 10 workshops offering step-by-step instruction on how to stage a show will be offered this season by the Princeton Community Players. Members and non-members alike are eligible for the course, to be given at the Playmill, 262 Alexander Street.

The first two or three will be directed by John F. Becker, independent motion picture and television director who has been responsible for a number of the Players' top productions. Other professionals in the fields of costuming, set design, lighting, etc., will give succeeding lectures. Actual play-staging will also be a part of the course.

The first meeting will be held early in October, with registration to be made now through H. C. Sturhahn, Players' treasurer, 17 Chambers Street (WA 1-6880.) Members of the dramatic organization may enroll without charge, with non-members paying a small fee.

most needed include men's hats, particularly straw boaters and homburgs; men's suits, especially vintage 1890 to 1920; women's high-neck blouses and high-boned collars; women's parasols, lace mitts and purses, vintage 1890 to 1920; and women's dresses from the Gay '90s period. Large sizes are craved, for jackets and blouses at the turn of the century were so small in waist and shoulders that the only Players who can wear them today are six-year-olds.

To give potential contributors an idea of what the Players are collecting these days, Mrs. Dunn noted some of the interesting donations that arrived at the Play-mill during the summer. Accepted, with wide-open arms, were two World War I German helmets, a black lace parasol, shawls, a lace matilla, NAVY uniforms, a black velvet-headed cape, fur muffs, feathers and several Victorian skirts. Members of the Players, former members and even non-members contributed.

Mrs. Childs also issued a call this week for new volunteers for her department. "Contrary to general opinion," she said, "you don't have to know how to sew to join in the activities of the costume department. If you are handy with a safety pin, that is sufficient. We would welcome anyone interested in helping this department."

The chairman admitted she and her aides will not be too involved in the November production of "Planet," since only the visitor from outer space requires special costuming. Thus, they will devote the early part of the season to renovation of the department, a search for more costumes, enlistment of volunteers and preparation for planned future plays which will necessitate a great deal of costume help.

er prizes for high cinemattainment. Based on Jules Verne's 1873 novel, Todd's jumbo extravaganza-expedition — with trenchantly humorous screenplay by S. J. Peichman—is a three-hour Technicolored spectacular packed with thrills, comedy, slapstick, adventure, breathtaking scenery and around-the-world flavor.

The plot on which the film's series of startling events is strung, deals with a bet made by an English gentleman, played delightfully by David Niven. He sets out round the world with his man servant, able Mexican actor Cantinflas, after wagering members of his London club that he can circle the globe in 80 days flat. As this is 1872, that represents quite a feat. The stake is 20,000 pounds.

Niven and Cantinflas hold center stage most of the time, but they receive tremendous aid from a host of big-name Hollywood stars. Particularly outstanding are the late Robert Newton, Shirley MacLaine, Marlene Dietrich, Bette Midler, Charles Boyer, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Noel Coward and Peter Lorre. The Playhouse gets "80 Days" two years after its original release and can't handle the special Todd-AO version, but the picture is well worth the wait and the CinemaScope edition is excellent.

THE GARDEN

Rouge et Noir (September 18-20), in French with English titles, is a fairly faithful movie version of Stendhal's classic novel, "The Red and the Black." Set in the French Restoration period (1830) and brilliantly filmed, this two hour and 17-minute import is a mature, absorbing, elaborate and meticulously designed drama depicting the meteoric rise and tragic fall of an ambitious peasant youth who seduces women and misuses the Church to advance himself. A bit tedious and unbelievable on occasion, "Rouge et Noir" nonetheless is authentically costumed, magnificently photographed and superbly acted. Gerard Phillips and Danielle Darrieux are the marquee personalities with a strong following here.

The Man in the Raincoat (September 22-27), in French with English titles, affords funnyman Fernandel a marvelous opportunity to exhibit his untarnished comic wares. Cast as a bewildered musician, he falls unhappily in and out of seven murders, rarely stopping to catch his breath. This slapstick, satirical comment on the suspense film is almost always entertaining and occasionally is downright hilarious. In support of France's No. 1 comedian, Bernard Blier, John McGiver and Claude Sylvain deserve wholehearted votes of thanks.

Classes begin the week of October 13. Classes are limited to twelve pupils each, and are graded according to age and ability.

NEW PUPILS: For brochure and application blank address: DIRECTOR, PRINCETON BALLET SOCIETY, BOX 171, PRINCETON, N. J., or phone WA 1-7758.

Class assignments and schedules will be made up by October 6. Applications must be received by then. Accurate placements in classes cannot be guaranteed after that date.

IT'S NEW To Us

IT'S STEREOPHONIC

New Music Shop Opens. The components of the Music Shop have been reassembled in the new University Store and the effect is binaural, to say the least.

There is much more selling space (although not quite so much for storage) and much more display space for things that were hidden before. Records, for example, are now displayed in bins instead of being arranged on shelves like books. Browsing has therefore become much easier.

There is more sheet music, too, and the shop plans even further argument in this department, with emphasis on books used by music students.

The instrumental department is expanding like an accordion and although you still can't buy a trombone or a tuba in the store, you will find more in the way of guitars, recorders, bongo drums and other popular instruments. Record collectors have four listening places in which to bend an ear, and all kinds of stereo records to listen to. The new Music Shop has stereo records in every line: "If anybody's putting 'em out, we've got 'em."

Stereo components in the shop start at $139.95 for a complete Decca portable you can carry around to any room in the house, on up to Fisher components in which the only portable element is the $700 or $800 you pay out.

In radio, the new store on University Place has Zenith's pocket

Flaming Youth

"Fie! Fie! Fi-Fi!" may not have been the "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" of 1914 but its author was to become fully as well known as Mr. Williams and his works just as valuable to collectors.

It was F. Scott Fitzgerald who wrote book and lyrics for that 1914 Triangle Club show. He went on in 1915 to produce lyrics for Edmund Wilson's book, "The Evil Eye" and in 1916 he turned out lyrics for "Safety First." (P. Mackay Sturges was involved with these productions, too.)

The Witherspoon Art and Book Shop, through some astute purchases, has acquired score and lyrics for all three Fitzgerald shows and you may have the three bound volumes (they are in excellent condition) for $100. Certainly a bargain price for collectors of Fitzgerald or Princetonians and the perfect Christmas present for someone with nostalgia for the pre-twenties.

transistor models at $44.95 and $59.95.

Is It In Print? If it is, the Witherspoon Art and Book shop can get it for you. Not wholesale, maybe, but with a 10% discount. If it's a new book.

The shop that started out in the Branch Building, moved to Spring Street and then to Witherspoon Terrace, is now back on Spring at number 6. The name, of course, refers not to the street on which the shop may be located at any given moment, but to the esteemed president of Princeton University.

At the moment, the Art and Book Shop specializes in those Christmas cards from England that people look for eagerly every autumn. They are on the racks now. On the shelves, you'll find Darwin and A. A. Milne, Hemingway and Fanny Farmer, perhaps that rare edition you've been hunting for so long, and a fine new selection of inexpensive beginning to read books.

Winter Green. The holly clan has really gathered this fall at the John Obal Garden Market (Rosedale) on Alexander Street. We found an unfamiliar member called Chinese holly (ilex Burfordi) with rounder leaves than the Christmas holly and the same green-turning-red berries. Like the American holly, the species won't produce berries unless you have male and female trees. Mr. Obal has both.

The American holly you buy at Christmas time might just as well come from your own garden. For $50 you may have a six-foot tree, expertly planted by the nurserymen. A three-foot bush (you plant it) is $12.50.

Ilex convexa, the globular ilex rotundifolia and the finely leaved ilex microphylla are plentiful, too. In fact, the nursery has rarely had such a tremendous supply of plants for an autumn planting season.

There's a cherry laurel, denser than mountain laurel with a longer, shinier leaf, native and hybrid rhododendrons by the

LAWRENCE DRIVE-IN

The Badlanders (September 19-20) are Alan Ladd and Ernest Borgnine, and they are very bad indeed. They spend most of the movie planning and executing the robbery of a fat gold mine, then make good their escape in a wild shoot-out. Of course, the daring thievery is justified because the boys merely steal from people who had robbed or cheated them in the past. After an involved, slow start, the film moves at a rapid, absorbing and successful pace, developing into a much better-than-average "western." Contributing factors include CinemaScope, Metrocolor, director Delmer Daves and a fine supporting cast, topped by Katy Jurado, newcomer Claire Kelly and Kent Smith. Gordia Scott stars as the legendary ape-man in the Lawrence's companion feature, "Tarzan's Fight for Life."

The Kid (September 21-23) is an arresting, offbeat World War II drama, set in England, the Red Sea and the English Channel and concerned with the spectacular, heroic saga of tugboat captain who rescues a German convoy ship, often fought the Nazi submarines. Magnificent sea sequences and interesting by-liaison Italian and Trevor Howard more than atone for that film's uncertain, somber love story that quite jells. That is, it's the picture's falling—unless viewers are simply satisfied with Sophia Loren's province on screen, and many people seem to be. "Gun Battle at Monterey," starring Sterling Hayden, is the companion feature with "The Kid."

MUSIC CIRCUS

Last 10 Days of Last Show. Julie Gibson is starred in the Music Circus' final offering of the 1958 season, an amusing under-the-big-top version of "No Time for Sergeants." The comedy, scheduled to play in Lambertville through September 29, is derived from the story of a mixed-up, hilarious backwoods draftee who did so well as a Broadway production and a Hollywood motion picture.

"Sergeants," another of St. John Terrell's successful, non-musical presentations, is being given at 8:30 p.m. Tuesdays through Fridays, with a pair of performances—at 6 and 9:30 p.m.—each Saturday and an 8 o'clock curtain Sunday. The company has 19 days more to run at the Music Circus.

BUCKS PLAYHOUSE

Final Production: "Candide." Following this weekend's concluding performances of "The Children's Hour," starring Linda Darnell, the Bucks County Playhouse will present its final production of the 1958 season, a musical version of "Candide." The Lillian Hellman-Leonard Bernstein concert interpretation of Voltaire's great work will open next Monday evening and continue through September 27.

"Candide" will star Martin Green, Robert Rounsaville and Felina, Green is one of the foremost creators of comic roles and Sullivan operettas for the D'Oyly Carte Company. Rounsaville is a Metropolitan Opera star and won much acclaim for his title role in the film, "Tales of Hoffmann," and Miss Felina is a mezzo-soprano whose finest Metropolitan performance was "Carmen."

woodful. Plant an oxeye-daisy—coincident red leaves in the fall; tryxanthum rich orange berries in fall and winter; edonaster horizontalis, its red-orange berries on its low branches.

Hardy chrysanthemums in white, bronze and yellow are 75c and $1.25. Madonna lilies from northern France are ready to plant now for regal white blooms next spring. And of course the garden market has thousands of bulbs from Holland to plant for your spring garden. While you're waiting for them to come up, enjoy a cannella in your green house ($5 for a 2 1/2-foot plant).

Tartans, Ancient and Modern. Skirt racks at Clayton's on Palmer Square hold the ancient, but currently fashionable tartans made in Scotland into straight skirts for American women. They are misty tomato reds, or taupe, brown and grey for $22.95. The familiar tartans, the Chisholms, Cockburns and Black Watches, have been made into kilts for $35. With these, wear a Viscella shirt from England (woven and sewn there) in red, green, heath (tint), white with an autumn glow (a ruddy coral). To wear with your solid color skirts, Clayton's has the same Viscella in a paisley pattern of grey, brown or blue. They are $16.95, the solid colors $14.95.

Shapely makes a cotton paisley blouse in every color you can think of—not all in one blouse, of course. Most of them look in, but there are models you can wear in or out. Cost is $19.95-$35.95. Look at the silky cotton blouse with brilliant cherry red and gold carnations on an olive ground. Wonderful in the first grey and wintry day.

Clayton's hat bar serves up fall hats in pleasant colors: copper, sage green, brown, a touch of coral. Most hats are a kind of beaver, brushed to a feathery swirl. There are also smooth heaver hats with a high nap and sheen, but most of the fall ones are furry. For cocktails, you'll switch your bid from phrasant to grackle and let your admirers admire the lusciousness of black feather on black hat.

Sweaters this fall are lambs wool and angora (Premier) shaped long to go over a skirt, perhaps even tied with a belt. Some collars are stockinette stifle, others have a small pop-corn look, and colors are the palette of the hillside and the autumn sky: clear blue, bright red, hunter green, hazel, camel.

If you sew, you'll be getting the greys by Botany, some wool, some wool and nylon. There are Oxford, Bankers (in two qualities) and Grey-Planned grey. The wool is $3.95 a yard, the blend is $2.95 and it's washable.

The combination of red and orange so popular this fall appears in an acetate and rayon tuxed at $19 a yard. Denim is still a member of the Ivy League (89c) and occasional striped designs that have a gold thread woven with the sewing. Plain denim comes in a tweedy variety.

If you sewing is for your house, you'll be interested in Best-plant's pleating and designs that you sew on the top of a curtain. Insert the special hooks and your drapes plant themselves. There is a Best-plant for cafe curtains

Golden Wins T-Bird

Walter P. Golden of 152 Linden Lane won the 1958 Ford Thunderbird raffled off Saturday for the benefit of Princeton Hospital. The drawing for the T-bird was held at a dinner dance which concluded Princeton Hospital Day at Forsgate Country Club.

The golf tournament drew about 175 players to Forsgate to compete for a total of 49 prizes. The prizes were offered in low gross, low net, and Callaway divisions, plus driving contests and hole-in-one contests for men and women.

Another 18 gifts were given out as door prizes for the evening dinner dance which was attended by 125 couples. Proceeds from the Golf Day which was sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of the hospital and was called "a big success," will not be known until the end of the week.

latest in ladies' sportswear will be on view this Saturday at 12:30 in the Palmer Room of the Nassau Tavern. Sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Princeton Lions Club, the fashion show and luncheon will feature slacks, shirts, skirts, sweaters and blouses from the English Shop, as well as special clothes for children from Allen's.

In addition, the English Shop will show winter coats, ranging from suburban and car models to outercoats, and will give a preview of holiday and Caribbean wear. Peggy Brady, New York fashion coordinator, will comment on all the clothes. Tickets, priced at $3, are available at the English Shop, 32 Nassau Street, and at George Habeeb's, Princeton Shopping Center.

PTA TO OPEN CAMPAIGN

High School Launches Drive. A two-week drive for magazine subscriptions and renewals will begin Monday under the sponsorship of the Princeton High School PTA. Commissions from these subscriptions go into a fund from which the PTA awards scholarships for the next study to qualified seniors.

During the two-week period members of the PTA will call on high school parents and friends, asking them to send in their subscriptions through the PTA. The scholarship fund commitment will receive subscriptions all year, even after the drive is over. Orders may be placed with Mrs. Charles W. Widman, 206 Moore St.

Nine members of the Class of 1958, received scholarships from the magazine subscription fund. They are: Loula Rieger, Jr., Alexander Rd., Princeton Junction (Rutgers); Sandra Wayner, 551 Lake Drive (Goucher); Philip Betsch, Hollow Rd., Skillman (Rider); Joan Zematis, Cranbury Road, Princeton Junction (Bryant); Carolyn Wilcox, Village Road East, Dutch Neck (Bucknell); Marguerite Allison, 27 Birch Avenue (Parsons); Eva Barozay, 58 Phillips Avenue, Lawrenceville (Douglass); Joyce Anne Harvey, 23 Murray Place (University of Pennsylvania Hospital); Garret Durling, Jr., Washington Street, Rocky Hill (Newark College of Engineering).

PTA Officers. Mrs. Norman Fredericksen will serve as president of the Princeton High PTA during the coming year. Her fellow officers are Mrs. Frederick Harbison, first vice-president; Mrs. John Fenn, second vice-president; Mrs. George Parker, recording secretary; Mrs. H. L. Beidler, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank Brink, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Widman, assistant treasurer.

Chairmen of standing committees are membership, Mrs. L. W. Rowles; publicity and cantren, Mrs. Paul Strayer; social, Mrs. Richard Pearson; scholarship, Mrs. Robert Cawley.

Mrs. John Kennedy is chairman of the newsletter committee; Mrs. Sterling Bissett will serve as board member representing the PTA on the Council of Community Services; Mrs. John Fine is American Field Service chairman and Mrs. Jefferson Collings is magazine chairman.

Dutchess County
by Drexel

We've raised the curtain on one of the most charming periods of early American history . . . the days when Dutch settlers made Dutchess County a world of gracious living. Their homes were friendly and inviting. Their furniture was the kind that inspired this finely crafted group by Drexel. You'll love these heirloom designs for your home today. The solid walnut is finished with loving care for a mellow Old World air. Some pieces are gaily decorated with colorful 17th Century tile motifs. Choose from our complete collection for bedrooms, dining room and living room.

Bigger...and Better

In an effort to make the Borough's 29 street-corner fire alarm boxes more conspicuous, and thereby aid residents in reporting fires more easily, the municipality has ordered a complete set of bigger boxes. New Jersey Bell Telephone Company will install the new boxes, to be painted red per tradition, before the first of the year.

Borough Clerk Robert F. Mooney, explaining the conversion to new-style boxes, stressed that the system for reporting fires will not be changed. Persons spotting smoke or flames will still phone the information direct to Borough police headquarters, but will be using bigger alarm boxes—with longer phone cords instead of the present, somewhat inconspicuous, taxi-size boxes.

The Borough switched from a telegraph to telephone system of reporting fires exactly three years ago, and has found the phone system much more successful. False alarms, of course, prompted the change.

MRS. KISSAM PRAISED

For Service to Public Library. Mrs. Philip Kissam, formerly chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Public Library, has been honored by a statement of appreciation issued by the Board. Mrs. Kissam was appointed to the Board in 1944 and served on it for 14 years, the last five as chairman.

In acknowledging "the brilliant and faithful services of our former chairman," the Trustees prepared a commendatory statement. For Mrs. Kissam, the Clerk of Borough Council and the press in which Mrs. Kissam's services are recognized.

"As chairman, her outstanding contribution was her success in the choice of our present personnel," says the citation. "But she was more than a business expert. Only individual members of the staff can describe her many acts that cheered an illness or brightened a working day."

The Trustees have taken particular note of the Library's close relations with Borough Council under her chairmanship and express the hope that they will continue.

MUSIC COURSES OFFERED

In Adult School Curriculum. The Princeton Adult School will offer a course this fall on how to play the recorder under the direction of Herbert Keilmann, assistant director of the American Recorder Soc. He points out that the recorder is an ideal instrument for the amateur, since it can be learned quickly and lends itself well to group playing. The class is open to both the beginner and the virtuoso.

Mrs. Barbara C. Lewis will again be in charge of the choral group which will meet in October with additional members. Music scheduled to be sung ranges from the 15th century to the present with composers to include Dufay, Palestrina, Morley, Bach, Brahms, Irving Fine and Hindemith. Last year, the group gave two informal concerts and also sang at the Unitarian Church. Registration for these and other courses will take place at the high school next Tuesday through Thursday from 4 to 6 and 8 to 10. The term opens October 2. For complete details on curriculum, see page 14.

APARRI GAINS TEACHER

To Give Modern Dance Courses. Mrs. Janice Hagood, who has taught dance in the Borough public schools for six years, will teach several courses in modern dance this year at the Aparri School. She will also give an advanced course in dance composition for students who have had previous study in ballet or free style.

A former pupil of Doris Humphrey, Charles Weidman, Hanya Holm and Martha Graham, Mrs. Hagood did the choreography for the high school's 1953 production of "Cirrus". She is the wife of David Hagood, who will be with the —Continued on Page 12

Faculty Totals 18. An all-time high of 147 students has been reached at the Hun School, with 14 more boys enrolled than last year. With the completion of a new building next year, including a dormitory housing 72 boys and a kitchen and dining room to feed 200 people, Dr. Paul H. Chesbro, headmaster, expects that the many potential students who were turned away this year can be taken care of in the future.

John P. Poe, chairman of the board of trustees, and Dr. Chesbro addressed the school at its opening last week. The student body has representatives from 17 states and four foreign countries with a total of 16 coming from Cuba, China, Saudi Arabia and Venezuela. There are 93 boarders and 54 day students.

Robert Meader has replaced William J. Hutton who retired last year as Latin instructor and Robert DiCusio has been added to the science-mathematics department. The total number of teachers is now 18, which maintains the desired student-teacher ratio of eight to one.

FIRE WARNING

Chief Stemmle Cautions. Relying on cheap fire extinguishers or unreliable home fire alarms may actually be dangerous, Fire Chief Joseph Stemmle has warned with the approach of Fire Prevention Week, scheduled for October 5 to 11. It is possible to put a home and family "in greater danger from fire by depending on such gadgets," Chief Stemmle said.

The small, cheap extinguishers which are sold in stores everywhere and usually come in tin cans, aerosol cans or plastic containers, "just aren't big enough to assure putting out a fire in its first stages, and their reliability is uncertain," the Fire Chief commented. Unreliable substandard home fire alarms, most often inexpensive units operated by flashlight batteries, housecurrent, or a spring motor, are "just as dangerous and perhaps more so, since they lull the home owner and his family into a false sense of security," Stemmle said.

MAILBOX

Final Bow of Season
To the Editor of Town Topics:

The time has finally come for us to wind things up at Murray Theatre after another presumably successful summer. One of the things we mean to do before we go is to thank you for your reviews of our productions, and for all the attention you have given us on your theatre page. We are grateful to you for coming out every Tuesday night to see the shows, and for taking the time and trouble to write a thoughtful review. Obviously you realized what these write-ups meant to us, not only publicity-wise, but ego-wise, and we are inclined to think that you were often kinder to us than we deserved. In any case, your reviews were always intelligent and perceptive, and we respected that. Thanks to the good reviews and a few other things, chances seem rather good that we will be able to return next summer for another season of plays. We hope so, and we hope we will be working with you on the publicity. Again, many thanks.

Registration Deadline Nears. —
To the Editor of Town Topics:

September 25 is the final date for registration for the coming election in November. I wish to remind anyone who is eligible to vote, but has not as yet registered, to do so now.

If new residents have lived in New Jersey for six months and in Mercer County for 60 days prior to November 4, they are eligible to vote at the coming election. If old residents have changed their name or address, it would be advisable to make sure that this change has been recorded at the clerk's office.

Anyone wishing to register or to make a change in his registration should go to the Clerk's Office in either Borough Hall or Township Hall, depending on where he lives. Do not fail to register before it is too late.

HOPE TO BE RAZING CANES BEFORE LONG: Indefatigable Neilson Poe, an ardent member of Princeton University's class of 1937 who has never needed a cane, poses for a pre-season football picture with two promising Princeton sophomores, who hope to lose away their canes before the first game starting whistle September 27. Members of the class of 1961 are Gary Trout (left) an end who can punt 60 to 70 yards with regularity, and Gary Loftus, a small (177 pounds) but sturdy guard candidate. For Mr. Poe's annual football forecast, undimmed by the Garys' ankle injuries, see Question of the Week below. (TOWN TOPICS Photo by Alan Richards)

Question of the Week

Question: How do you think Princeton's football team will fare in the 1958 season?

Location: Around town.

Neilson Poe, The Nassau Club, retired coach and Princeton '37: This should be a very interesting year of development for the Princeton team, with a backfield that certainly will equal any we have in the Ivy League. But the time has so many vacant spots to fill—and the depth problem is going to worry our coaches a great deal, especially in view of injuries that are bound to crop up before the season is over. Four outstanding players from last year's club—Sapich, Grubb, Casciola and Benis—must be replaced. Naturally, I'll say once more that we're going to win them all!

Bernard Gliby, Trenton, clothing salesman at Douglas MacDaid's Princeton store: Princeton will fare very well, despite early injuries. I believe the Tigers will take six of their nine games, losing to Rutgers, Penn and Dartmouth. They've got to meet Rutgers too early. Penn has good sophomores from a fine freshman club and Dartmouth is the champion-elect.

Elias Scudder, John Street, bootblack at Jack Honore's barber shop and longtime Princeton booster: I hate to admit it, but Yale is going to give us an awful close game again this year. However, we'll win all the rest of them, so, if Yale can be taken, the Tigers will claim an undefeated season!

Edward Muller, 3 Blair Tower, Princeton University senior: I disagree with predictions in various national publications to the effect that Princeton will capture the Ivy title. Both Penn and Dartmouth are potentially stronger teams and should beat us. We'll probably lose to Yale, too, so that means a 6-3 record.

George Sella, 73 Broadripple Drive, product manager with American Cyanamid: I haven't had a chance to consult with the "experts" as yet. But I do think Rutgers will be Princeton's toughest opponent. If the Tigers can get by Rutgers, they should go on the way, for too bad they don't meet Rutgers later in the season.

Steller Soothsaying

For the past two Septembers, Town TOPICS has devoted one Question of the Week to an ever-popular query—that of guessing how Princeton's Tigers are going to fare during the coming football season. Former gridgers George Sella and Hyman Battle both predicted the correct Princeton record back in 1956—7 wins, two losses—while Martin Lipkes, manager of the Western Union office here, foresaw annexation of the Ivy League crown a year ago.

As a result of their crystal-ball prowess, Messrs. Sella, Battle and Lipkes have been invited back for another crack at a perennially difficult Question. So has Princeton's No. 1 backer, Neilson Poe, who always seems to manage the right answer, whether the Tigers go on to win 'em all or not. Princeton will open its 90th season of intercollegiate football September 27, thus prompting the vital Question this week.

John Delbridge, 28 Wilton Street, analyst with Opinion Research Corporation: Princeton will be unbeatable—except, perhaps, for Dartmouth. The team has a fine nucleus of backs and some promising sophomores up from last year's freshman squad. I look for an excellent season.

Hyman Battle, 184 Mangrove Road, lawyer: I'll go along with a 7-1-1 record for 1958. The Princeton line will hold up better than reports to date, with the possible exception of one bad game. We've got a wonderful backfield, of course.

Martin Lipkes, Mercerville, manager of Princeton Western Union: I think this year that Rutgers is going to beat Princeton and other teams—I don't know which ones they will be—also will defeat the Tigers. Despite this 6-3 record, they will repeat as Ivy champions.

GRIS INSTALL OFFICERS

Tall Activities Planned, Mary Ellen Assembly No. 51, Rainbow Order for Girls, has installed its new officers for the winter term (see picture above).

Named assistants were: Janice Carson, recorder; Barbara Forward, treasurer; Trudy Schreiber, chaplain; Barbara Hocking, drill leader and Kathy Hoff, Edith Poinsett, Edna Higgins, Carol-Beddoe, Missy Rightmire, Sue Wright, Pat Vogt, Paulette Hartwig, Chris Ruopp, Sue Messner and Bonnie Bain. The choir includes Pat Fish, Flora Wood, Cindy Cox, Doris Cooper, Sue Wilson, Gail Lloyd, Lynne Marek, Cherry McFadden, Linda Yard, Elaine Osborn, Laennina King and Linda McErdy.

A Christmas party for children from the Union Industrial Home, as well as a Christmas cookie sale, are planned for the winter, and the girls are knitting lap robes for patients at the Eastern Star Home. An ice-cream party will be held at the Lawrenceville School rink.

MEET TO TAKE OFFICE

At County Legion Head. Two members of Princeton Post 76, American Legion, will be installed as officers of the Mercer County Legion at ceremonies scheduled for 8 p.m. next Thursday in the War Memorial Building, Stacy Park, Trenton. Nathaniel J. McKee will formally take the office of County commander and Ernest F. Drouin will begin his 19th year as County treasurer.

Delegates from Post 76 at the convention of the State Legion last week included Ernest F. Drouin, Norma Fowler, Henry Frank, Nathaniel J. McKee and Henry Robertello. Also attending the convention from Post 76 were John Gallagher, John Hance, Richard Knowles, Albert Kneib, Harold Pyrmie, Charles Robertello, William Schannel and Norman Sevis.

The delegates will report to the membership on divisions made at the convention at the next large meeting of the Post. This is scheduled for 8 p.m. Wednesday at 55 Mercer Street.

GIQ FOR GOP

Campaign Office at 10 Nassau, Princeton Republican Club will be working out of a campaign headquarters this fall at 10 Nassau Street, formerly occupied by Hamman's Grocery store. The headquarters will be open from 11 to 6 weekdays and from 9 to 5 Saturdays, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. week.

During the week before election day, the center will stay open every evening as well, according to H. K. Sander, president of the Princeton Republican Club. He said that the main purpose of the office is to provide voters with every type of voting information, including fact sheets on the GOP candidates in Princeton, Mercer County and State contests.

DECORATING LESSON

Program for B'nai B'rith Women. A home decorating program presented by the Colanese Corporation of America will be featured at the first meeting of the B'nai B'rith Women for the 1958-59 season. Entitled "World of Ideas," the presentation is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. next Thursday at the Princeton Jewish Center.

Mrs. Frank Lewin, program chairman, will read the commentary on the 55 color slides which include 35 room settings and pictures of the steps in making the fabrics illustrated. A representative of Nassau Interiors will be present with samples of the various materials and a dress length of fabric will be presented as a door prize.

Also at the meeting, Mrs. Irving Levey, adult education chairman, will discuss the significance of the Success Holidays, which begin this year at sundown September 28. The meeting is open to the public.

GIRL SCOUTS MOVE

Council in Temporary Offices. The Princeton Girl Scout Council has moved to temporary quarters at 102 Witherspoon Street. Mrs. Ronald Hackley, Girl Scout president, announced that the office will be open from 9:30 a.m. to noon, Tuesday through Friday, and the temporary telephone number is Walnut 1-5815.

An appeal for volunteer leaders for the Girl Scouts has been issued by Mrs. Hackley and Mrs. Bernard Barenholtz, scout organizational chairman. Mrs. Barenholtz noted that free leadership courses will be offered soon and those interested should call the temporary scout office or her home, Walnut 4-1688.

During the 1957-58 year the Princeton Area Girl Scout organization served more than 400 girls. These girls came from Kingston and West Windsor as well as the Borough and Township.

REGISTRATION DRIVE

Kendall Park GOP After Eligibles. Members of the South Brunswick Township Republican Municipal Committee are working to have all unregistered Kendall Park voters registered before the September 26 deadline. Abraham Dobin, municipal chairman, is leading the group's effort.

Mr. Dobin has reminded potential voters that they must be a U. S. citizen and a resident of New Jersey for at least six months and a resident of Middlesex County for at least 60 days to be eligible. "To be eligible for registration, you must be a registered voter and moved from one address to another, within the county," he said, adding that voters who have moved from another county must register again.

The Kendall Park registration will continue every evening at the home of William Reed, 212 Kendall Road, from 7 to 9 p.m. until September 25. Arrangements for daytime registration may be made by calling Mrs. Reed at Davis 8-8594.

dell Park's Cambridge school have raised the combined capacity of the school to nearly 500, double what it was. The six room classroom building and kindergarten building were constructed in only 10 weeks by Kendall Builders Inc., general contractors for the Kendall Park project.

The new buildings have been designed in the same style as the first structure, with high vaulted ceilings, a maximum of glass area and concrete block construction. The classrooms are triangular in shape.

The developer built the first section at his own cost and agreed to build the additional buildings at a low cost bid. "This cooperation between the Township and the builder is the only way and fastest way to provide the needed classrooms for the children in these growing communities," Mr. Kendall explained.

ALUMNAE GROUP TO MEET

Program Discussion Planned. The Princeton-Trenton-Delaware Valley alumnae association of the Delta Gamma Fraternity will hold its first meeting of the season Tuesday at 8 p.m. Hans K. Sander of 380 Rosedale Road will be hostess.

The association's president, Mrs. Alexander Robinson of Franklin Park, will preside over the business meeting, which will be followed by a program planning session. The group's membership includes residents of Princeton, Trenton, Franklin Park, Yardley, and Levittown, Penna. All area alumnae are invited to attend.

SAMPLE FAIR SCHEDULED

At Franklin Firehouse. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Franklin Park volunteer fire company will hold a sample fair Wednesday at 8 at the firehouse. The admission fee is $1, which includes refreshments. Mrs. George Lettinger and Mrs. Anthony Carmen are chairmen of the event.

The fire company and auxiliary have also planned a spaghetti supper for Saturday, October 18, from 5 to 7 at the firehouse. Tickets can be purchased from any member, are priced at $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

The annual dinner of the auxiliary group will be held Wednesday at the Log Cabin Inn. Awards were given to all officers with five or more years of service.

SOCIETY PLANS SUPPER

Welcomes New Members. The Rosary and Altar Society of St. Augustine's Church in Franklin Park has scheduled its annual turkey supper for Wednesday from 5 to 7 at the church. Mrs. Margaret Geng and Mrs. Adele Lang are co-chairmen with Mrs. Carl Hengert and Mrs. Louis Kozma in charge of tickets.

New members welcomed at the September meeting were Mrs. William Bauer, Mrs. Thomas A. Berkley, Mrs. Horatio Gill and Mrs. John Horstling. A merchandise club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harney, will be part of the society's activities and Mrs. John Lang has been put in charge of the sale of Christmas cards.

Martha's Guild will meet Monday, September 25, in the church meeting room. A night of recreation will be held in October at the Canale of River Road with the date to be announced in the near future. Those interested in attending should call Mrs. Geng or Mrs. John Lang.

Ike's Popularity Up

New Jersey voters approve of the way President Eisenhower is handling his job by an eight-to-three margin, according to The New Jersey Poll. With 72% giving him a plus rating, he has improved his standing since the 68% he received six weeks ago. The Poll's findings show his high point rating reached in February 1957 (83%), but the current 72% is well above the June 1958 low of 63%.

The all-important independent voter approved Ike's performance by an almost three-to-one ratio. Exactly half the Democrats and 95% of the Republicans registered "yes" votes.

The Poll feels the President's returning popularity will have a favorable influence on the state's congressional and senatorial races. After the 1956 adverse election results, however, experienced GOP pollsters were of the opinion local candidates could not ride Ike's coast-tail successfully.

GARDEN CLUB TO MEET

First Flower Show Set. The Dogwood Garden Club will hold its first flower show on Friday at the homes of Mrs. Charles Whinfrey and Mrs. Alan Norris on Mount Lucas Road.

Open to the public from 2-5, the show's theme is "Autumn on Mount Lucas." The horticulture division of annuals, perennials, shrubs or trees and house plants is open to general competition while artistic arrangements will be made by club members only. Educational exhibits include conservation and compost exhibits.

Junior Section Included. Design classes in the junior section which is open to the public, include "Animal Fair," "Old MacDonald Had A Farm," in the Toy Shop," miniatures, horticulture and educational. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Douglas Smith at WA 4-1184. Those wishing to enter the horticulture division and special exhibits should call Mrs. Whinfrey at WA 4-1614.

Co-chairmen of the show are Mrs. J.N. Kenyon and Mrs. Whinfrey. Assisting them are the following committee chairmen: Mrs. George Bishop and Mrs. Norris, staging; Mrs. Whinfrey and Mrs. Kenyon, schedule; Mrs. Jack G. Copeland Jr. and Mrs. Philip Shays, entries; Mrs. Wesley Owens and Mrs. W. A. Lebourveau, classification; Mrs. Richard E. Young, placing; Mrs. Louis Greber, judges; Mrs. Harry A. Hey, hospitality; Mrs. Lebourveau, finance; Mrs. Albert Mindler, publicity; Mrs. William B. Durrye, conservation; Mrs. Douglas Smith, junior and Mrs. William Spicer, white elephant.

GOVERNOR TO SPEAK

On WPRB Program. Governor Robert B. Meyner will be the guest on WPRB's "Princeton Speaks" program Wednesday night at 10:30. Edwin P. Vanderwicken Jr., the show's producer, will interview the governor from his Trenton office.

The State's new Sunday closing law, tax legislation and future political plans are subjects slated for discussion. Mr. Meyner will also report on his administration's accomplishments to date and his plans for new legislation and for New Jersey's future development.

WOMEN VOTERS' PLANS

Meeting in South Brunswick. A pre-organization meeting of the South Brunswick League of Women Voters was held Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Dayton School. Mrs. Warren T. Kingsbury, secretary of the League's State Board, spoke.

Mrs. William Zimmerman is chairman of the nominating committee appointed to present a slate of officers at the league's organization meeting on October 1. Assisting her are Mrs. R. C. Cook, Mrs. Parmelee Duffus, Mrs. Donald Scherer and Mrs. Irving Stein. By-laws are being prepared by a committee which Mrs. Roderick Crabbe heads. Assisting her are Mrs. Andrew Johnson and Mrs. Vincent Anna.

A Steering Committee is completing steps for organization of the league in South Brunswick. Members include Mrs. Crabbe, Mrs. Scherer, Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. Irving Stein, Mrs. Harry Stein, Mrs. Cecil Helgett, Mrs. Harold Hochstadt, Mrs. Seymour Reisman, Mrs. Ernest Roock, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Tempel and Mrs. Robert Wesel.

Go forth, young man

... we can't use you here

Is this the word to our young people . . . able and beloved . . . when they finish school and are ready to start making their own living?

Too often it is, in the smaller communities such as ours.

Why don't we have more job opportunities and more business opportunities right here, so that more of our sons and daughters can establish their homes and be happy and prosperous here at home?

It's partly circumstance. Partly the natural limitations of the economy of our area. And partly because a residential community is — through its own preference — unable to offer every type of job opportunity.

But it's also partly because many of us have let ourselves get into the habit of spending too much of our money somewhere else.

Every dollar that we spend away from home is a dollar less to circulate among us and to account for 2 or 3 or more dollars of added trade volume as it moves from hand to hand.

Keeping more of this easily available trade volume at home is one way by which we could create and sustain more local opportunities for our young people And for ourselves.

UNIVERSITY US TUTION

For Higher Faculty Salaries
Finceton University's tuition and academic year 1925-1926, totaling $250, beginning with the academic year 1925-1926, President Wilson said that the university will be used to permit "long-overdue improvement in the salaries of the university faculty." Dr. Green said he hopes the total undergraduate fixed fee to $1150, and the graduate fee to $1500.

Dr. Green said he hopes the total undergraduate fixed fee to $1150, and the graduate fee to $1500. Dr. Green said he hopes the total undergraduate fixed fee to $1150, and the graduate fee to $1500.

In connection with the increased tuition, he added that the university is planning to use and limit the number of students in the program so that no student currently enrolled, whether or not he is now receiving such aid, will have to leave Princeton for good. He said that the university has been explained that Princeton's students are not to be considered as a public, since waiting time is no longer a problem at most state universities. He said that the university will be put on a twelve-week with the reading extra personnel to be scheduled to open in the next future.

CLUB PLANS TRIP

To Observe Flowers. The Tron-Naturalist Club will take a trip to the Adirondack Park, N.Y. Hill wildflower preserve to observe flowers, ferns and fungi, and to collect specimens. The trip is being organized by the club's president, Dr. J. H. Green, and will leave for the Adirondack Park on Saturday, May 1, and return on Sunday, May 2.

The club will visit the nearby birch-bark station at 4. Last year at the same time of meeting, the club was held in addition to other birds. The public is invited to observe the birds on Saturday, May 1, and Sunday, May 2.

INDOOR SWIMMING HERE

Featured at Princeton Manor. If you long to swim the year round, Princeton Manor Construction Co. can build your new house around an indoor pool with its own heating and filtering system for almost the same price as a large, outdoor model. Designed by S. J. Schwinn of Princeton for leading builders throughout the country, the house-with-pool can be seen at 136 Randall Road in Princeton Manor which over 8000 people have visited during the past month. A large review is in the process of construction for Edward Gorman, president of Cascade Pools Inc., on Cherry Valley Road in Hopewell Township.

The model-home pool, which measures 16 by 32 feet, is fully visible from the 28-foot living room through sliding glass walls. Mothers can keep an eye on their children from the kitchen as well.

Open and Shut Case

To stay open or not to stay open?

The Board of Directors of the Princeton Business Association has sent a questionnaire around to its members asking them to answer this puzzling question; specifically, PBA wants to know whether business establishments prefer Thursday or Friday as a night to hold open-house for the customers.

PBA members plan to experiment from October 1 to Christmas to see whether it's worthwhile for stores to remain open at all. The poll asks store owners to state which night they prefer and whether they would close up shop if a majority of the town's businessmen chose a night they didn't like. Other questions ask whether the owner would be willing to change nights or even remain open both nights and what he thinks of a plan to reimburse customers for parking.

Edward A. Chobosky, president of PBA, says results will be announced when the poll has been completed.

and two baths, is adaptable to both family living and privacy. Folding doors are utilized to separate the living room from the family room for two-generation entertaining, and the dining area can be shut off from the kitchen for formal meals. Further living space is provided by a down-stair pannelled recreation room. Other "extras" include a separate powder room off the master bedroom, a built-in baby gate and a breezeway with a built-in barbecue. The breezeway also doubles as a weather-proof outdoor terrace. Prospective home owners can choose from a number of traditional and contemporary exteriors according to their taste.

The home is designed to be built in three stages, depending on the financial capacity and space requirements of the potential purchaser. If a swimming pool doesn't appeal, the pool area can be converted to a garden dining room where tropical flowers will grow throughout the year.

NEW ANSWERING SERVICE

With Round-the-Clock Service, Princeton Telephone Answering Service will be in business as of October 1 at 201 Nassau Street furnishing the area with its only 24-hour "live" answering service. The new organization will be on the job seven days a week all year long, including holidays.

President Sanford Zeiler, a Lawrenceville resident, states his operation will utilize the most modern telephone answering equipment in central southern New Jersey to give subscribers the best service possible. Several switchboard secretaries will man the up-to-date facilities especially made for answering services.

The answering service will receive and relay messages, contact subscribers in emergencies, deliver messages to anticipated callers, deliver general information and take orders. It offers desk space, a mailing address service and will wake you up if an alarm clock won't do it. "In fact," says Mr. Zeiler, "We will talk to anyone at any time on any subject."

Routine paper processing, such as envelope addressing and stuffing, billing, bookkeeping, abstracts, analyses and coding, will also be part of the service's activities.

KING'S COURT TO OPEN

Charcoal Hearth Featured. Occupying the former site of the Witherspoon Art and Book Shop at 28-30 Witherspoon Street, the King's Court restaurant plans on a tentative opening date of September 29, barring unforeseen construction difficulties. The court itself is getting a complete landscaping with a 20-foot tree in a brick tub planned to enhance the outdoor seating arrangement.

A charcoal hearth will be the focal point for luncheon, dinner and "in between" eating. The Court will be open from 10:30 to 12:30 a.m. and 42 people can be accommodated.

The 16-18 Nassau Street space is being remodelled by Lewis C. Bowers & Sons and will be used for the administration and investment departments of the trust division. Edmund Cook & Co. are managing agents for the building which belongs to the Princeton University Store.

The bank plans to cut an entrance through from the main banking floor to the new private offices and conference rooms. November 1 is the target date for completion.

LITTLE GALLERY EXPANDS

To Open Belle Mead Branch.
The Little Gallery will house its old prints and paintings, decorative Americana, old maps and framing facilities on Route 206 in Belle Mead beginning October 4. The building was the former store of "The Red Barn," which specialized in country clothes, and the property is owned by George Stoveken, an antique dealer.

Mrs. Cey Mohrman, a former decorator, will manage the branch shop and will offer advice on wall groupings of pictures. Larom B. Munson, owner of the Little Gallery, notes the new store "will have an atmosphere similar to our summer gallery on Cape Cod, which is also an old barn. We will show pictures already framed and ready to hang."

VETERAN BACKS READY FOR 1958 SEASON: This quartet of Tigers is indicative of the ability of Princeton's backfield this fall, with both Dan Sachs (46), triple-threat tailback, and Captain Fred Tiley (38), line-busting fullback, ranking among the best in the East. Quarterback Gene Locke (21) and John Heyd (47), who can play either wingback or tailback, are another pair who figure largely in Princeton's plans for defense of the Ivy title. (Alan Richards Photo)

SPORTS In Princeton

JUGGLING ACT

Tiger Lineup Doubtful. The tough combination of loss of key players through injury and the need to switch capable men to unfamiliar positions is creating major problems as the opening game of Princeton's 1958 football season nears. With a little over a week to go before the Tigers meet Rutgers in Palmer Stadium, two line positions on the right (or strong) side, and two backfield berths were still question-marks.

Hopes were that the answers could be found quickly, at least to the degree necessary to turn back a good Rutgers team. There has been an attempt to hide the optimism blurring over at New Brunswick, and the belief there is that the Scarlet has its best chance to spend its traditional rival since it last turned the trick just a decade ago. The challenge is based on the veteran 203-lb. line and the breakaway ability of tailback Billy Austin, who in 1957 gained more yards per game than any other player in the country.

In the Princeton line, trouble stems from the loss of end Stan Stansbury and tackle Frank Schulz, both out of the game this fall with injuries. Each was a letterwinner as a sophomore last fall and their loss has caused additional personnel switches at every position but center to bring the line back into balance.

In the backfield, the spotlight is on the wingback and quarter-back positions, the number one and two berths in the singling formation. The question here is whether a couple of big men, 195-lb. Mike Ippolito and 203-lb. Mike Iseman, can beat out the smaller players who went into the third week of practice leading on their ability.

The smaller operatives are good—no mistake about that. Gene Locke has a fine working knowledge of singling strategy, and showed it last year whenever he was called upon to replace the occasionally ailing Jack Sassech. But Locke at 175 gives away over 28 pounds to Ippolito, a combination of size and extra durability that makes a big difference in an afternoon spent alternately blocking and linchpinning.

Iseman has even more than that on seniors John Heyd and Ray "Spalter" Emson, the former weighing 165 and the latter a scant 150. However, the big sophomore not only has to overcome his first week's inaction through a minor injury but the fact that Heyd is an accomplished triple-threat.

Same Positions Filled. A few positions are apparently clinched—probably as many as seven. The starting ends against Rutgers are likely to be 6-4 Bob Sheppard and 6-6 Ed Kostelnik. Gene Forcione, at 215 the biggest starting lineman, is expected to recover from a foot sprain quickly enough to take his place at left tackle.

Others in the line who are fixtures are 190-lb. Art Max at left guard and the veteran Frank Sevelock, 193-lb. center. The two ball carriers assured of being in at the kickoff are Captain Fred Tiley, 203-lb. fullback, and Dan Sachs, 175 pounds of versatility at tailback.

Under-riders are two vital spots on the right side of the line—guard and tackle. In the former position, a promising sophomore, 195-lb. Stan Baldwin, is giving senior letterman Paul Warwick, 205, stiff battle for the job. Off what he has shown to date at Blairstown, Baldwin may get the call.

A 1957 Jayvee, Gordon Batchelor, 187, is also in a struggle with classmate Bob Fisher, a 200-pound Junior who won his letter last fall at right tackle. Ron Hille-gass, a 195-lb. converted end, is the third man here—a spot in which inexperience could make trouble for the rebuilt Tiger line.

As the picture indicates, the starting backfield after the first fortnight at Blairstown consisted of Heyd at wingback; Locke, quarterback; Tiley, fullback; and Sachs, wingback. If these four should start, it would be the lightest first-string Princeton backfield in memory—despite the fact that Tiley has added almost ten pounds since last season.

In the event that Ippolito and Iseman come along to win regular berths, and Baldwin beats out Warwick at guard, the Tigers will have undertaken a real rebuilding job. Of the 11 men in the line, only three—Sheppard, Forcione at tackle and Tiley at fullback—would be seniors.

Tough Work Ahead. At a time when so many players relatively

New Rule, New Look

The highly-controversial change in scoring rules will be in effect next Saturday, September 27, when Princeton and Rutgers meet in the 49th renewal of the contest that launched the sport in 1869. It could be that football fans will be treated to the oddity of seeing a team line up on the eight or ten yard line to try for the point after touchdown.

The rules now award two points if the ball is carried on the conversion play. They farther state that the ball will be placed "on or behind" the three-yard line.

Throwing a bullet pass into a tightly-knit defense may not be the easiest solution to acquiring that much-wanted two-pointer. However, there's nothing in the 1958 rules to prevent a team from putting the ball in play ten yards out—and letting the spread-out opposition guess whether it will throw a short or long pass.

new to varsity action are being counted on. Princeton faces a much more difficult opening third of its season than it has in the past. All three of its initial opponents—Rutgers, Columbia and Pennsylvania—are making no

DICK COLMAN
Princeton Football Coach

For 20 years, at Princeton and Williams, Dick Colman coached football under the guidance of the late Charlie Caldwell. A few weeks before his death last November, Caldwell's choice to replace him as acting head coach was the soft-spoken Williams alumnus who had won awards in six different sports at his alma mater and had played a major hand in bringing Princeton football to its bright post-war pinnacle.

Colman's first full year as head coach could hardly have begun under more difficult circumstances. "Experts" viewing the Ivy picture from afar have tabbed Princeton as the team to beat—so that reputation of last year's hair-raising, half-game triumph in one of the nation's most evenly-matched leagues is already expected of him in many quarters.

Observers closer to the scene are more aware of the problems confronting the Tigers' general staff. Even though deprived of spring practice by Ivy policy, he saw the necessity of switching the positions of a good 30% of his top 33 players before they reported for pre-season training at Blairstown.

Other new assignments followed once practice began, with the situation further complicated by the loss of a strong tackle and a tight end—both originally counted on for starting positions. So voluminous have the changes been that it is possible for Princeton to field a line in which every man will be playing in a different position than he filled last fall. In most cases, the changes are from right to left guard, or left to right tackle, but the assignments are by no means identical.

Despite the presence of more good backs than Princeton has had in the better part of a decade, the juggling act is of necessity being repeated among the ball-carriers. To balance the Tigers' strength, an established wingback must switch to the totally new and vital task of quarterbacking the team, and an inexperienced sophomore tailback must step into the gap at wingback.

Dick Colman's many moves are being made as calculated risks, but they have all the stamp of a master moving his players carefully across a chessboard. As success and occasional failure follow in a series of bright fall sunshine, there will be every reason to believe that his difficult task will be discharged as well as could possibly be expected.

bones of the fact that they expected to be markedly stronger than they were last fall.

A look at last year's scores shows how little margin Princeton has in planning to repeat victories over two of these three teams. The Orange and Black thumped Columbia, 47-7, but it took fourth period touchdowns to edge Rutgers, 7-0, and Penn, 13 to 2.

If the Orange and Black goes with seven or eight juniors and sophomores in its lineup and manages successful defense of its Ivy League title, it will be a tremendous achievement. Much of last year's fine 7-2 campaign was attributable to the work of such linemen as tackle Bob Casciola and guards Dave Grubb and Art Benis, and to the starting backfield that included seniors Tom Morris, Jim Motley and Captain Sapoch. They will be extremely hard to replace.

Offsetting this is the fact that better than average material is at hand in the form of back-to-back unbeaten freshmen. In 11 games over the past two years, all opponents—mostly first-year Ivy eleven—have failed to trim Princeton Classes of 1960 and '61, with only Yale's freshmen of a year ago gaining a tie. It will take weeks to bring this sort of strength to fruition at the varsity level, but it does mean that the Tigers will continue to field a first division outfit at least through 1959.

Some previously unmentioned players have made faster progress at Blairstown than had been anticipated. By now, they have cracked the three-deep listings on the chart showing the top 33 Tigers, and will be heard from as the season progresses.

Best example is Stan Baldwin, who has come along well at guard and might be the only sophomore starting against Rutgers. Others are sophomore Gary Loftus, slowed briefly by a leg injury (see picture, page 15) but expected to spell junior Art Max at left guard; Bob Sprague, a junior who spent last year on the crew and has come along rapidly at left end; sophomore Jerry Sullivan, who may develop into the initial replacement for Frank Szwetetz at center; and Billy Marr, 185-lb. sophomore quarterback. The latter currently ranks ahead of the captain of last year's freshmen, Ron Hagstrom, as the player who will fit in when Locks and Appleby are not running the team.

WEAKNESSES UNVEILED

FHS Benefits From Scrimmage. As he predicted last week before Saturday's scrimmage with New Brunswick, Joe Jingoli, head coach of Princeton High's Little Tigers, obtained answers to a number of questions about his 1958 football team during the rugged, three-hour session. Glaring weaknesses were revealed—many of which the FHS coaching staff will seek to eliminate by the Mount Holly opener September 27—and, of note, some strong plusses also were observed.

The visiting Zebras, with a more experienced varsity and generally heavier linemen, did most of their yardage-gaining through the air, fooling the Blue and White's halfback defenders with alarming regularity and indicating an all-too-porous FHS pass defense. Jingoli said he isn't too concerned—yet—regarding this problem, since pass defense had not been covered thoroughly up to Saturday's workout.

Princeton's mid-line headaches were apparent during the scrimmage as New Brunswick's ball-carriers occasionally broke through the middle for good gains and the Little Tiger backs had trouble in moving anywhere at all.

between the ends. Around the flanks, however, the Zebras were pretty much thwarted, while Princeton's runners went around both sides for impressive gains. All in all, Jingoli and Ed Blumberg, New Brunswick's veteran coach, considered the scrimmage an excellent test for both clubs. Princeton held its heavier opponent to one varsity touchdown and the Little Tigers' co-captains—halfback Julius Cross and end Tony Boccanfuso—completed a lung aerial for their team's only varsity TD. The Zebras also connected with a field goal.

Concentrating on the Little Tigers' difficulties "up the middle," Jingoli cited the standout efforts of John Chiroda, an unexpected 206-pound tackle transfer from Fiddie School who is expected to aid the PHS cause a great deal. Dave (not John) Kilgore, another newcomer, showed well at end for Princeton, while senior Dick McCluskey, hailed as the anchor man of the Blue and White forward wall, began living up to his advance billing Saturday morning.

Blumberg, whose Zebras switched from T-formation to single wing last season and posted a mediocre 4-4 record in the process, said he looks forward to "a much better year this fall"—and, on the basis of last week's scrimmage, predicted a good season for PHS. Jingoli, meanwhile, prescribed hard work for his charges, including another pre-campaign scrimmage here this Wednesday—against Flemington High—and a third scrimmage this Saturday, possibly against Fiddie.

BOWLING NOTES

All Leagues in Action. Competition in all of Princeton Recreation Center's bowling leagues got rolling this past week, and some of the individual scores posted were: halfback for the start of a new season. George Sichel, for instance, paced the Princeton "B" loop with a fine 212 game, while Bill Donahue registered a 229 in the Industrial circuit.

Behind Sichel among the high-scoring "B" keepers were Harry Kahny, 224; Hal Frazee, 222; Buddy Cavanaugh, 203; Bill Pinell and Vince Gregg, 202 apiece; and Harold McWhorter, 200. In the Industrial League, Dumble was pursued by Walt Wengryn, 213; George Wengryn, 212-200; and Frazee, 200.

Elsewhere, Frank Stoffko led the Tri-County Firemen's League with 202-210 and Doug Watson enjoyed his second straight good week with a 203 game. Jack Crawford's 207 effort proved to be the sole 200-plus mark in the Princeton "A" League.

Team-wise, matters stood in a state of comparative confusion following opening rounds. Farr Harkness, the Knights of Columbus and Hult's were deadlocked atop the six-team "A" loop, with six wins each, while the 12-team "B" loop found Food Machinery Chemical No. 1, Pete & Mike's Mobil and Tiger Bus tied for the lead, also with six victories apiece.

Kingston grabbed undisputed possession of first place in the firefighters' league, with 12 wins, followed by Hook & Ladder "H" and IFPD, with 10 triumphs apiece. Thanks to the Wengryn boys, Wengryn Construction managed a quick lead among the Industrialists, with six wins.

In distaff competition, Nassau Service (11 wins) broke a tie to lead Turmy, Nobles (12) and Cifelli Electric (10) in the Women's Industrial League, and Nassau—Continued on Page 25

Report from THE MAYOR

Friday Open House. The "Tell it to the Mayor!" sessions this Friday and next will be held on Friday evening from 7 to 10 at Borough Hall. No appointment is necessary for these informal chats.

On Thursday of this week, Mayor and Council will have a brief special meeting at 8 p.m. to act on amendments to the Traffic and Parking Ordinance. Also that evening the Mayor will speak at the fifth anniversary dinner of the Princeton Soroptimists.

The following Thursday, the Mayor will take a flying one-day leave to meet in Chicago with an committee of the National Association for Mental Health, returning in plenty of time for the Friday open house.

A Significant New Year. The Princeton community extends special greetings to her residents of the Jewish faith. As the Jewish year 5719 begins, Rabbi Joseph Gorman and his congregation have special cause to celebrate.

They begin their first full year in the beautiful new Center on Nassau Street. The Center adds another reason for Princeton's justifiable pride in the religious institutions represented here.

Thirteenth Birthday. On October 24, the United Nations will celebrate the 13th anniversary of the ratification of the UN Charter. President Eisenhower has called upon local officials to encourage appropriate observance of UN Day. A distinguished Princeton resident, General Edward S. Greenbaum of 104 Mercer Street, has been designated by Governor Meyner as Chairman of New Jersey's observance.

He has asked for the appointment of a local Chairman and the issuance of a proclamation naming October 21 as UN Day. Certainly Princeton, with all its history and its ongoing contributions in world affairs, should be in the forefront of any efforts to mark our commitment to world cooperation.

Clerk Bob Mooney, as a member of the Executive Committee of the Municipal Clerks' Association, is helping to plan the annual meeting of that group. He has also been accepted as a participant in the week-long Management Institute at Swampscott, Mass., from October 20 through 28, sponsored by the American Society for Public Administration. One hundred Federal, state and local administrators will take part in the sessions.

Borough Engineer Riker, on recommendation of the New Jersey Society of Municipal Engineers, has been appointed by State Health Commissioner Depaam to serve on a Joint Committee to study and make recommendations concerning the regulation of the use of sewers by municipalities and other administrative agencies.

Borough police are again being invited to participate in a week-long training course organized by Ewing's Police Commissioner Gordon Phillips. The FBI is supplying the instructors.

Safety. At the suggestion of our Safety Committee and with the approval of Borough Council, the Mayor will arrange to meet with residents of Hamilton Avenue in the area between Harrison Street and Stowden Lane, to discuss the need for sidewalks. The Mayor will also receive a thoughtful letter from one of these residents, pointing up the hazards, particularly to youngsters who must walk in the street along this heavily-traveled thoroughfare.

News Of The CHURCHES

Bulletin Notes. With pride and consternation Unitarians watched last Sunday as 211 persons filed into the new church for the first time held there since its completion. The new auditorium was completely filled and now Unitarians are wondering how the church can grow to double services may provide an answer.

M. Kathleen Garry will be the featured speaker next Wednesday before the Women's Association of the Unitarian Church, which will meet at 10 a.m. at the church under the sponsorship of the Service Committee. She will describe the work of Margaret Barr among the natives of Assam in India.

Honor From The Pope

Catherine Gill McLaughlin, former resident of Princeton and sister of Mary Gill Reef, was elected by Francis Cardinal Spellman on September 6 as a Lady Grand Cross of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem.

Mrs. McLaughlin, who now lives in Cambridge Mass., was invested as a Lady of the Order a year ago and the recent ceremony in St. Peter's Basilica, which was an elevation to the Order's highest rank.

The honor is bestowed only with papal approval and Cardinal Spellman, in conferring the unusual accolade, was acting in behalf of His Holiness, Pope Pius XII.

Catholic laymen are named to the Order as a result of work they have done in the propagation of the faith. The Order is one of the oldest in the church and the earliest documented sources place its beginning in 1099. According to Agostino, first Bishop of Jerusalem, was the founder.

Behind Helen were Janice Cifelli, 172; Betty Kleiber, 160; and Sis Kleioth and Betty Cooper, 165 each.

ARCHERS LEARN FAST

Put On Good Show. Following a lengthy, thorough training course during the summer, participants in the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association's archery class exhibited their skills in a course-concluding tournament this past weekend. The archery class was divided into three groups to the top three competitors in each of the tourney's three categories and trophies will be given to these same youngsters when the PBA also honors its tennis champions at a special October program.

In the 9 and 10 age group, 10-year-old Thomas Callaghan of Quarry Lane took first place with a total of 99 points, shooting 26 arrows from three different distances. Paul Casey, 9, of Euclid Avenue, Kingston, finished in the runner-up position with 68 points, while David Tessen, 9, of 23 Fisher Avenue, wound up third with 65 points.

Leading the 11 and 12 age group was James Moran, 12, of Laurel Avenue, who totaled 75 points. He wound out Joseph Squitieri, 12, of 403 M. Lucas Road, who hit for 74 points, with Bob Anderson, 11, of 11 Fisher, trailing with 51 markers.

Among the participants in the over-12 category, Richard Hamrysky, 14, of R.D. 1, collected the most points in the tournament, 107. Richard Finelli, 17, of 35 Leavitt Lane, took second place with 83 points and Bill Weissenburger, 16, of R.D. 1, ranked third with 79 points.

come to the Princeton League of Women Voters, a non-partisan organization dedicated to the principles of self-government. Study groups, meetings and teas are in the fall agenda with such subjects as higher education and a sound state tax structure slated for discussion. Prospective members should call Mrs. Herbert Abelson at WA 4-130.

Mrs. Melvin Gottlieb, president of the Princeton League, attended a four-state conference Wednesday on the development of the Delaware River basin. League members from New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Delaware met in Philadelphia to discuss the overall problems in developing the river basin and multi-million dollar project.

TEENS SCREENED

Driving Committee Meets. Meeting twice in the past ten days to consider the question of teenage driving habits, the committee formed last summer by photographer Alan W. Richards

And Then There Were Some

Without halfback material of any note only a week ago, the Princeton High School's head football coach, discovered this week that it's always darkest before dawn. Two "very promising" junior halfbacks have joined the fled and Black fold: one, Paul Radley, son of John (Katz) Kadlic, Princeton University's great quarterback of the early 1930s, and the other, Alan Landis, an experienced transfer student from New Brunswick High.

Waterman also learned this week that Tommy Petrone, versatile three-sport sophomore performer from Princeton, will be able to compete in 1958, despite a head injury sustained late in the '57 campaign. In view of the improved halfback situation, Petrone probably will be used behind Co-Captain Charles Bennett as Hun's No. 2 quarterback, where he will be less likely to get hurt again and will be developed as the club's top signal-caller for his and the senior years.

As TOWN TDPICS went to press, Waterman was negotiating for a possible Saturday afternoon scrimmage with Princeton High, which prefers a morning workout but might agree to an afternoon session because Hun conducts classes Saturday mornings.

has announced that it hopes to have concrete suggestions to present to Governor Robert B. Meyner in the near future. The committee feels that a part of the solution may be stricter legislation.

Mr. Richards has received a letter from Governor Meyner expressing his own concern about traffic safety and assuring Mr. Richards and his committee that any and all recommendations that you may make will be given thorough and careful consideration by me and the state officials of State government."

Committee members are Borough Mayor Raymond F. Male, Graham Rober, Theodore T. Tama, Howard W. Stepp, Captain Howard Lambertson of the State Police, the Rev. Edward C. Henry, George W. Conover, Irving W. Mershon, Mrs. E. Harshbarger, Francis G. Clark, Mrs. Geoffrey E. Sage and Howard B. Waxwood, Jr.

ALTOGETHER APPEALING

for $22,500

Not the least of the appeal of this unusually pleasant ranch house is that you can move in as fast as your lawyer can say "It's yours." Appealing too is the fact that you would not have to spend one extra penny on it. Decorative it is tasteful and pristine; condition is excellent; landscaping, including innumerable fine trees, is done. The living-dining room is extra large, as is the secluded lot. The three bedrooms are nice, the closets large, the kitchen and bath shiny and efficient. We repeat, appealing in every way, including the realistic price.

WEST END HOMES: Unusually large and varied selection. Victorian to Modern. Lots or acreage. $21,500 to $135,000

TWO LINE TEASERS**

Three br ranch, quiet Top. st. Rentable. $140 $13,000

Country ranch, 2 acres, privacy, potentially attractive $16,500.

Year old split, near school, exp. d.r., rec. room, 2 1/2 baths—$11,500.

Lawrenceville. Fine older house, exp. apt. or family home—$35,900.

Lake area split, 4 br., rec. room, 3 baths, lot with trees—$17,500.

Appealing Colonial, 3 br., den, screened porch, fenced lot—$21,000

Romney ranch, landscaped secluded lot, 2 1/2 br., 5 br., 2 baths—$35,900

MODERN! 1 acre NW Top, 4 b.r., playroom, 2 1/2 baths—$18,500

**Call for More Information

HOUSE IN BUSINESS ZONE. Can be used for apartments or offices. Easy parking. Asking $35,000.

ENGLISH COUNTRY STYLE for $36,500

We may be crazy, but somehow this red brick house reminds us more of an English country town than anything else. Perhaps it's the combination of the brick and its setting, "growing out of the ground" look, maybe it's the interesting roof lines and wings, perhaps it's the landscaping—terraces on different levels, ivy beautifully kept, etc. Set high on one perfectly private acre in the lovely northwest Township, the house has a summer shade from gorgeous old trees and a winter view. On the inside its outstanding feature is a striking living room with cathedral ceiling, large fireplace and exposed beams. Add to that four bedrooms, two baths, dining room and potential basement playroom and/or study, and you've got a really outstanding property at the price.

Princeton's newest luxury home!

(and near lovely Lake Carnegie)

RANCH, SPLIT LEVEL, COLONIAL HOMES
3, 4 AND 5 BEDROOMS
2, 2½ AND 3 BATHROOMS

These stately homes are built on a luxury scale... with extremely spacious rooms and inspired decorative and functional ideas. The ranch, for example, is 78 feet long. It features pegged oak flooring and a dominant fireplace in the recreation room, 22 x 16 patio with barbecue, 27-foot living room, two-car garage. Each model has its own distinctions... supremely beautiful custom planning for all requirements and tastes.

Only 30 homes will be built on these choice 30 acres. Many were spoken for before the models were begun. May we suggest an early visit.

from $29,990

Swimming pool and air conditioning are available.

A Century and a Half Old Farm House handsomely restored, but retaining its aged charm with old rafters, white floors, old fireplaces, wavy original crane, a bit of cranberry glass, and an old stone well house on the property. A gracious three-story house with fireplace, a cheerful dining room with fireplace, a pleasantly rustic kitchen, a large bluestone floored den with old fireplace, plus a most desirable downstairs bedroom and bath. Upstairs there are four bedrooms and a large double entrance bath. Flagstone porch and a charmingly shaped terrace with long views and magnificent shade. Split rail fence, a barn-garage. A splendid 52' x 43' swimming pool.

Priced at $150,000

A Double Price Reduction offers a rare opportunity to obtain a conveniently located four bedroom and two bath home that was designed with thought to privacy, equity, livability, and superior construction on 1/2 of an acre in the township. Among the extras are, an artfully executed fireplace and custom cabinet in the living room, an appealing open stair well in the entrance hall, French doors from the living room to the master bedroom and a large veranda porch overlooking the garden. A sun deck off one of the two very large upstairs bedrooms. A complete dark room with running water. Large high basement with built-in storage wall and large back fireplace. Well appointed dining room, modern kitchen. Private horseway that is perfect for a small herd. A 2-car garage with the one stall roof that covers this 10,000 sq. ft. foot house which is set amongst mature shrubs, tall shade and private garden.

Helena Rubinstein Shows You How To Wash Away Blackheads!

Medically-Tested Treatment Banishes Blackheads, Whiteheads, Oiliness, Coarse Pores

In two weeks' time blackheads, coarse pores, clogging oiliness will give way to the smoother, mat, even-textured complexion that's your dream. Helena Rubinstein whose youthful interest in the study of medicine led her to specialize in correcting disturbed skins, now shows you how to conquer oily, clogged skin problems. And now, for a limited time — because Helena Rubinstein wants to make this thrilling help available to every young person with a skin problem, many of you now facing a new school year — you can buy Medicated Beauty Treatment at savings of 1.80!

Medicated Beauty Treatment

Enlarged pores are an open invitation to blemishes. STEP 1 is DEEP CLEANSER, a creamy liquid that cleanses deep into the pores and dislodges even the dirt "glued" in by oil — while its exclusive antiseptic R-57 destroys the bacteria that commonly cause surface blemishes. STEP 2 heals and clears with MEDICATED BEAUTY MASK. Its medications are the same ones prescribed by dermatologists as effective in healing surface blemishes. As you wash off the mask you actually washed off blackheads and see a clearer, smoother, blemish-free complexion emerge! STEP 3 is a tingling skin bath of "WATER LILY" PORE LOTION which quickly helps tighten the pores for a more delicate texture, vitalizes color.

When you see those blackheads wash off like so many dirt specks, you'll know there's nothing for your skin like Helena Rubinstein's complete MEDICATED BEAUTY CARE!

Results Guaranteed

Helena Rubinstein says: "I am so sure you will be satisfied with the results when you use these products as directed that I guarantee complete satisfaction — or you get a full refund by returning them to the store where you made your purchase."
